AT RUCARUTeutonic Invaders However are Only
Twenty-five Miles from their Capital Town

(Associated Press)

London, Oct. 16.—Teutonic pressure against Rumania along the Transylvanian front continued today, according to latest reports. King Ferdinand's forces have been driven back into their own territory at Terz Burges pass. The Rumanians are reported as making a determined stand at Rucaru, seven miles from the border. The Teutonic thrust here is aimed toward Bucharest, which is about 30 miles distant.

MUCH FIGHTING IN MACEDONIA

In Macedonia the entente has resumed the offensive south of Monastir. Sofia declared the Bulgarians repulsed attacks west of the Monastir-Flora railway and in Cerna.

British patrols have entered Burauk, eight miles southwest of Demir-Sissar in the Struma sector.

AUSTRO-GERMAN OFFENSIVE

Petrograd reported that heavy Teutonic forces have assumed the offensive south of Derna Watra in the southern Carpathians, near the junction of the Rumanian, Transylvanian and Bukovina boundaries. Hard fighting is declared continued in Galicia east and south of Lemberg, without advantage to either side. The Russians are credited with taking nearly 1200 prisoners.

SPECIAL DUTY FOR LIEUTENANT CLEMENT

Washington, Oct. 14.—(Special). The following order issued by the war department today, will be of interest to Ocala. First Lieut. Joseph Clement, Ninth United States Infantry, is detailed for general recruiting service to take effect upon the completion of his duties pertaining to national matches at Jacksonville, and will then proceed to Savannah and report to the recruiting officer at that place for instruction for a period of 30 days in the methods of examining recruits, and at the expiration of this period will proceed to Jacksonville to enter on recruiting duty at that place.

Lieut. Clement is appointed an acting quartermaster for the time he remains on recruiting duty.

Lieut. Clement is assistant statistician of the 1916 national match and also served in similar capacity during the shoot her last year. Many friends he has made while at Jacksonville will be delighted to hear that he is to be stationed here recruiting duty in the future.

... .. has a special interest in Lieut. Clement, who during part of his boyhood days made his home in Marion county. He was among the first who visited Ocala and Silver Springs Sunday. His father, Mr. J. J. Clement, now deceased, is well remembered, and Mr. E. W. Clement is his first cousin.

WELCOME VISITORS

Congressman Clark, Legislator Clark and a Number of Army Officers
Here Sunday

Ocala had a bunch of pleasant visitors Sunday in the persons of Congressman Clark, his son, Frank Clark Jr., representative elect from Alachua to the legislature, and a number of army and navy officers. The latter were Maj. Wm. C. Harlee and Capt. G. K. Shuler, of the marine corps; Capt. J. A. Mack and Lieut. C. H. Chapin, of the coast artillery and Lieut. John T. Clement, of the infantry. With them was Mr. E. Y. Breese of Maj. Harlee's staff.

The visitors were a fine-looking and agreeable set of men, and Florida claims two of them—Maj. Harlee, who is from Manatee county, and Lieut. Clement, who is practically a Marion county boy, tho he studied in a Virginia military school and is one of the comparatively few army officers who were appointed from West Point.

The visitors arrived at the Ocala House about 11 o'clock, coming over from Gainesville in cars. They were met by an informal committee consisting of Postmaster Rogers, Mayor Robertson, Editor Harris, Messrs. R. A. Burford, R. S. Hall, Walter Hood, Thomas Sexton, W. A. McGuire, W. Austin Bennett, George Easterling, a Star reporter and several others. Messrs. Rogers, Robertson, Burford, Hall, Hood and one or two more added their autos to the procession and all went out to the springs.

Silver Springs was entirely new to the military and naval men, and even the congressman and his son had not seen its beauties as often as they would have liked. They went out in the glass-bottomed boat and had a good look at the submarine glories, and when they returned all declared that it was prettiest sight of the sort they ever saw. Army and navy officers are all traveled men, and their testimony is worth having.

Returning to the city, the visitors were entertained at the Ocala House. They had what was called a luncheon, but it was really a solid and elegant dinner. The viands were set out family style and Manager Bennett in person looked after the welfare of his guests. Present at this very satisfactory occasion were, besides the visitors, Messrs. Rogers, Burford, Robertson, Easterling and the Star man.

The visitors had had early breakfast and a long ride, and they heartily enjoyed their meal. After the luncheon, they lit their cigars and went over to rest and talk and smoke on Mayor Robertson's broad and hospitable front veranda. Later in the afternoon, they returned to Gainesville.

The army and marine officers are attending the great national rifle contest at Black Point. They came over to Gainesville to visit Mr. Clark, and he took the opportunity to show them Silver Springs.

Some of the officers spoke very highly of Black Point as one of the best camps and rifle ranges in the United States. They also praised our pretty little city and regretted that their stay had to be so short. They carried away pleasant memories, which the Star hopes will draw them this way again.

The visit was a social one, and there was no talk on politics and but little of public affairs. Congressman Clark however, answered questions about the Ocala and Silver Springs canal, and also gave Postmaster Rogers some information that will be welcome not only to the people east of the Ocala river, but to Ocala folks. It seems that Secretary Houston of the department of agriculture has set aside a portion of the appropriation of the department for roads thru the national forests. These roads are not only for travel but for fire guards. As most people know, there is a section of the national forest in the country east of the Ocala river, and at Postmaster Rogers' request Mr. Clark is going to try to have the department cut roads thru it. They will give the people of that section much needed highways and aid Ocala in visiting Salt Springs and other points in that interesting region.

Frank Clark Jr., a shrewd and clever young man, evidently following in his father's footsteps, highly complimented the roads of Marion county. He said he would much rather travel from Evinston to Ocala than over the same distance on the brick roads of Duval. He says there is a movement on foot to make a sub-road district in western Alachua and bond for half a million dollars and if it succeeds Marion people will find it much easier to visit Gainesville than now.

FIRST CAR OF GOOD FRUITFor the Season Shipped by Citrus
Exchange from Marion
County, Florida

The first car of fruit shipped by the Florida Citrus Exchange left the state last week from the grove of Mr. E. J. Lytle at Stanton, and another will be shipped from the same point tomorrow.

WILL OPEN THIS WEEK

Packing House of the Florida Citrus
Exchange

The Ocala sub-exchange plant of the Florida Citrus Exchange will begin packing for the season Thursday, the fruit being brought in from Citrus county. This fruit is the Parson Brown variety and is several weeks earlier this season than last.

It is thought that the packing house will be operated continuously until the crop is all gone next spring, as quite a few growers will pack here who have not been doing so in the past.

Mr. Boyd in charge of the local packing plant has everything in readiness to begin early Thursday morning, and while a full force of packers will not be required at the opening, it is expected to have the whole force working up to capacity in a few weeks.

BRYAN & COMPANY SAY THEY WILL STOP THE LEAK

President Nash of the city council has received the following letter from Bryan & Company:

Jacksonville, October 14, 1916.
Mr. G. A. Nash, President City Council, Ocala, Fla.

Dear Sir: We have your letter of the 12th inst. In reply we wish to say the mere fact that we stated our pumps of sufficient capacity to handle the situation were in service did not mean that there was excessive leakage in the tank, neither did the expression of our willingness to do anything we reasonably could to please the council mean that we are in any way liable for the conditions that you claim exist.

The tank is of large capacity and when we go to Ocala, if we should go, we want to be satisfied that we have pumping capacity to handle the situation under the most unfavorable conditions.

If there was reasonable cause for immediate action we would not wait for the release of our pumping equipment though the cost to us would be considerable. But there is no necessity for such haste as you are demanding, and we are not willing to go to such unnecessary expense simply because you demand it.

If you are willing to wait until we can release this pumping equipment we will take it to Ocala, pump the water down in the tank, and if there is excessive leakage will stop it. We can not, however, release this equipment for a few weeks.

Yours very truly,

Bryan and Company,

By J. E. Bryan.

MARION COUNTY BOY
MAKES HIGH CORN YIELD

Lawton Martin is just a little boy, but he made a big corn yield. He applied for membership in the Marion county corn club last spring. The county agent looked him up and down, then walked around behind and looked again. Lawton was eleven years old and that let him into the club with a margin, but he looked pretty small. The agent talked with him a while, but did not make any audible prediction. That boy had grit.

Lawton lives on Muelan farms, near Electra in East Marion county. He selected an acre of heavy muck land, broke, prepared and planted it. He did all the cultivating and kept all the records himself. G. L. Herrington, boys' club agent for the University of Florida Extension Division, and R. L. Blacklock, county agent, went out and measured Lawton's acre and his corn the other day. He had the acre all right—not a whit more or less. He also had something else—115 bushels of corn which he had produced at a cost of 13c a bushel. He did not use any fertilizer. His expense record follows: Rent, $5; preparation of seedbed, $2.80; cost of seed, $3.75; cultivation, $3.55; gathering, $3.75. This gives him the biggest net profit and the next to the highest yield that has been reported up to date this year in the state.—Agricultural News Service.

STEAMER IS SAFE

Submarine Was Chasing
Her

(Associated Press)

New York, Oct. 16.—No submarine had been sighted by the Danish steamer Hellig Olav up to 8 o'clock Sunday morning, according to a wireless from Captain Holst, replying to an inquiry from the agents of the Scandinavian-American Line. Observers on the White Star Line steamer Bovic, arriving Saturday, reported that a submarine periscope had been sighted about 200 miles out, apparently pursuing the Hellig Olav.

PLEASANT EVENING

AT FAIRFIELD

On the evening of Friday, the thirteenth, Mrs. Thigpin entertained her Sunday school class royally at her home in Fairfield.

During the evening two contests were given—a "tree" contest and a musical romance for which Miss Jessie Miller of Redick was finalist. In the tree contest, Mr. Jennings won the prize (a box of chocolates), Miss Osteen getting the booby prize, a copy of Mother Goose. Mr. Leslie Lenker carried off the musical romance chocolates. Mr. Best secured, after much brain work, a book of jingles.

The house was decorated with pink and white, the dining room, where refreshments of ice cream was served, being exceptionally lovely.

There were about twenty-eight Sunday school scholars present and four guests, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lenker and Mr. Leslie Lenker of Fairfield and Miss Jessie Miller of Redick.

Twenty-eight Sunday school scholars in one class speaks well for the Fairfield community, their teacher and superintendent, and we know Mrs. Thigpin is appreciated for the efforts she has put forth to make this class what it is, and any one who has been entertained in her home need not be told what a lovely hostess she is.

BATTLE NEAR BLITCHTON

As the result of a "festival, fish fry and fight" at the home of Ike Scott, colored, near Blitchton Saturday night, Norman Brooks was found outside the house after the smoke cleared.

Sunday morning Justice Ferguson by accompanied Sheriff Galloway and Deputy Osteen went to the scene and held an inquest. A coroner's jury composed of Messrs. J. W. Coulter, Dan Baxter, W. K. Worthington, Enox James, David Shipp and Frank Lewis heard the testimony of five witnesses and returned a verdict charging Lloyd Rivers, colored, with the killing. Rivers is now in the county jail and the date for the preliminary hearing will be set by Judge Smith this afternoon.

MAXWELLS MOVE MERRILY

Two more Maxwells have been sold since the paper went to press Saturday afternoon. One was sold by Mr. Peyton Bailey of the Maxwell agency, to Mr. W. E. Thomas of Lisbon, on the edge of Lake county, late Saturday afternoon, and Mr. Thomas drove the car home, rejoicing. This made two new Maxwells that Mr. Bailey sold last week at Lisbon. Early this morning Mr. Carroll sold a Maxwell to Dr. H. W. Counts, one of Ocala's young physicians who has long watched the performances of this car, and decided that it was the car for him. Both cars are the five-passenger type. The Maxwell agency has another load of six touring cars on the siding of the A. C. L. and will unload them tomorrow. Ten new Maxwells is the record of the sales department of the Ocala agency in the past twelve days.

CLEMENCY FOR
ROGER CASEMENTWas Asked by the United States but Refused by the British Government

(Associated Press)

Long Branch, Oct. 16.—Denial that the American government was negligent in its efforts to save Roger Casement is embraced in a letter of Secretary Tumulty to Michael P. Doyle, attorney for Casement, which was made public here today.

Doyle wrote Secretary Tumulty that Casement's sister had been informed if the Senate resolution urging clemency for Casement had been forwarded more promptly, Casement might have been spared. Tumulty quoted a letter from Acting Secretary of State Polk, saying the resolution was forwarded promptly and the British ambassador showed him a cablegram the day before the execution saying the government had considered the case and resolution and couldn't grant clemency under the circumstances.

MONDAY MORNING MEMORIES OF SUNDAY SERMONS

"Why Does God Let the Wicked Live?"

This was the question asked and answered yesterday morning at the Methodist church by Dr. Gross. The famous Johnathan Edwards in his no less famous sermon, "Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God," so realistically held the sinner over the pit of hell that it is said that men held to the backs of the seats lest they fall in and be lost. In that same sermon he says that the only reason sinners are not destroyed at any moment is because of the grace of God. Dr. Gross in his forceful and practical manner presented the following reasons why God allows the wicked to live: Because he is not willing that any should perish; again, because the mere fact that they are alive shows that a plan of salvation has been provided; then, again, because God's character is revealed through the regenerated human being. The wicked man has an opportunity to observe the life of the saved man, he has repeated opportunities to hear the plan of salvation presented to him. God wills that none shall perish, his arm is not shortened that he cannot save; so he permits the wicked man to live that he may have an opportunity to repent and be saved.

There were a large number who heard this sermon. Four were received into the fellowship of the church.

"The Kingdom First"

The people attending services at the Presbyterian church heard a most excellent discourse on the familiar text, "Seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness." Dr. Herndon laid particular stress on the "church as God's means of realizing the kingdom." This being true it naturally follows that the church and its members will demonstrate the finest expressions of allegiance, love and devotion.

The night topic was: "How We Grow Like Christ." Both services were well attended. A wholesome growth is evident in all branches of the church work.

A Former Ocala Enterprise Aired at the Baptist Church

Yesterday was "Florida Baptist Witness Day" and Pastor Stephens took advantage of the opportunity to stress the need of the religious paper in the home, to call attention to the continued improvement of the Witness, and to exhort the members of the Baptist church to subscribe for and read their denominational paper. The Witness was published in Ocala for many years and ably edited by Rev. J. C. Porter. Ocala, of all towns in the state, ought to boast of a long list of subscribers.

Mr. Stephens preached at the 11 o'clock hour on "The Planting of the Lord" and in the evening on "Attitudes Toward Sin," as found in the first chapter of First John.

NEVER WAS NOMINATED

Consequently Florida Democrats
Have No Intention of Voting for Catts

Jacksonville, Oct. 16.—Encouraging reports are coming in to the democratic headquarters from every section of the state. Many of those who supported Mr. Catts in the primary are beginning to realize that he was never nominated and are frank and open in pledging their support to the democratic nominee.

Schelle Maines, state committeeman from Seminole county, who was an active supporter of Mr. Catts and voted with his supporters at the democratic state committee meeting recently held, has written the chairman that he was going to support Mr. Knott and do everything possible to carry Seminole county for the democratic ticket. From West Florida comes a number of letters from those who have heretofore voted the socialist ticket and claim to have voted for Mr. Catts in the primary, stating that they now feel they are honor bound to support the nominee and pledge their support, and ask the committee to assign them any duty in order that they may help the democratic ticket in November.

The Catts club of Jacksonville, about ten days ago realized the seriousness of the situation and, it is reported, sent a summons to Billy Parker, who was at the time in Georgia, requesting that he return to Jacksonville and advise the best method and means to defeat the democratic ticket.

The democratic committee of Palm Beach county passed resolutions endorsing the nominee and declaring their allegiance to the support of the party, and made appropriation of $500 towards the campaign fund. The county committees are rapidly falling in line and taking up the first in cooperation with the state committee.

It is desired to pay this mark of respect not only to a good woman, but a very efficient officer of the club for the short while she served, and it is believed her influence will have a lasting effect upon the club members and the community at large.

MAXWELL PERFORMANCES

Mr. Jesse Neely asked the Maxwell trouble shooter the other day to adjust the carburetor on his new Maxwell, saying that he was only getting 20 miles to the gallon of gas, whereas he had been getting 2 to 27 miles to the gallon, mostly country work. Mr. McGowan of Lacota, in the "scrub," 20 miles northeast of Ocala, said on an actual test, which he could certify to, he got 15.5 miles on two quarts of gasoline in his new Maxwell. Mr. T. S. Mathews of Center Hill, came to Ocala yesterday afternoon in his Maxwell roadster in exactly two hours and 10 minutes, and he said the first seven miles of the road, as far as Okahumpka, is about as bad as they make 'em. Si Perkins, who is now driving his second Maxwell, selling goods for Jake Brown's wholesale grocery business, says he goes in high where Fords have to drag in low, and that his Maxwell will out-pull any four-cylinder car made, big or little. Plenty of Maxwell owners are getting a thousand miles and better from a gallon of oil. "Wolverine" oil, made for this particular motor. Bradford Webb of Kendrick, holds the record of 1911 miles on a gallon. A number of these cars, over the bad roads that exist in the surrounding territory, have given 15,000 miles on a set of tires. The average gasoline mileage, taking the roads as they come, is better than 20 miles to the gallon, and the cost of oil is almost lost sight of on these cars. The average performance, repair bills and upkeep on the 60 odd Maxwells in this section is most gratifying to the dealer and a source of pride to the owners. The new cars now being put out, with their easy riding qualities, overcome the last "kick" that Maxwell owners have eved had on the car. Mr. Robert Ebner and family with Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Leavengood went to Orlando yesterday in Mr. Ebner's Maxwell. He did not change from high speed on the way down and the round trip gave 28 miles to the gallon of gasoline.
